JUDGE HOWELL, President pro tem. of the Louisiana State Convention, has issued his proclamation for the reassembling of that body to revise and amend the Constitution of that State so as to bring it into harmony with the General Government, establish impartial justice, insure domestic tranquility, secure the blessings of liberty to all alike, and restore the State to a proper and permanent position in the Union, with ample guarantees against any further disturbances. Also with a view to the ratification, by the State, of the proposed amendments to the Constitution in the shortest time practicable. Governor WELLS invited the movement, and it is expected he will issue writs for election to fill vacancies. The supporters of President JOHNSON in Louisiana are highly indignant hereat, and protest the Convention has expended its authority, and has no right again to convene.

SENATOR COWAN, in conversation, a few days ago, with a distinguished and true Republican of this State, did not hesitate to declare it was his intention to oppose Gen. GEARY and do all he could to insure his defeat. We had no doubt, months ago, where the march Mr. COWAN was leading, would bring up. Fortunately, he has so deported himself, he has the road pretty much to himself. Few Republicans are inclined to follow him into the Democratic camp.

AT PHILADELPHIA a society has been formed for the care and cure of the intemperate. The plan embraces the erection of cottages to be furnished at low rates to the families of intemperate men, and a hospital for the medical and moral treatment of inebriates. Three hundred thousand dollars are required to complete the programme, but operations will be commenced when fifty thousand shall be obtained.

AT Salem, Illinois, on the 4th inst., Generals Sherman and Logan were present, and General Logan, in concluding his speech, said:

I was a Whig, but I have great affection for you loyal Democrats, your fathers, who sent your sons to support Gen. Sherman, who, I believe, is a Democrat.

General Sherman promptly interrupted General Logan, saying: "I never was a Democrat! I only voted once in my life."

FROM January to July of the present year 3,926,876 tons of anthracite coal were delivered at Philadelphia, being an increase of 1,420,823 tons over the corresponding months of last year. It must be a wonderful combination for high prices that thus seeks to overstock the market.

SPECIAL CAUTION.—Mrs. Winslow soothing syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the soothing syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

A Female Insulted
While under the influence of Laughing Gas, by a Pittsburgh Dentist, of Nitrous Oxide Gas notoriety. A dispatch to the Cincinnati Commercial, of July 4th, states that a well-known Dentist of Pittsburgh gave Laughing Gas to a respectable married lady, and took unwarranted liberties with her person while under its influence, which has given rise to much gossip and slander, and knowing not the names speculation has fixed upon whom it fancies to be the party. A Penn street firm append their names to the following: We lay such claims to moral and professional integrity as to be unwilling to have such scandal as the above retailed in such an unexplained manner, and enter our protest against being associated by inuendo with the guilty parties. We unqualifiedly condemn such conduct, and have no words to express our abhorrence of a man who would be guilty of so base an act. If there are men in our profession so lost to all sense of honor and decency as to be guilty of the above charge, we see no reason why they should be shielded in their crime, at the expense of honorable men. Therefore, we wish all to know that the place where this outrage was committed was NOT at our office, 246 Penn street. SILL & GILLESPIE.

DISPATCH FROM VICTOR EMANUEL.

Military Activity in France.

UNRELIABLE PRUSSIAN AND AUSTRIAN NEWS.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The following additional news was brought by City of London:

Frankfort-on-the-Main, June 27th.—The Federal Diet to-day appointed Prince Charles, of Bavaria, commander-in-chief of the federal army, with instructions to conduct operations under the direction of Benedek.

Florence, June 29th.—The King has addressed a dispatch to the President of the Council, saying the battle of the 24th was neither lost nor won. He adds: "I have ordered the concentration of all our forces to resume the campaign. Our army is in excellent spirits and is anxious to be led to battle."

Berlin, June 27.—Prussia has replaced the principal functionaries in Saxony, and the Electorate of Hesse and Hanover.

Frankfort-on-the-Main, June 27.—Austria has proposed to her confederate allies that all their plenipotentiaries at the Diet should be recalled, and a Committee of plenipotentiaries be appointed in their place, under presidency of Austria, this Committee to have power to decide upon matters without reference to their respective Governments. This has not yet been agreed to.

A very remarkable increase of activity is observed in the military establishment of France. Uniforms, arms and ammunition are got ready in the greatest haste, and to a sufficient amount for the equipment of the army at its full strength. The reserves only have, as yet, not been called in, but these are always to be obtained at eight or ten days' notice.

A St. Petersburg dispatch says: General Greigh, an Englishman, formerly an officer of the Imperial army, a great favorite of the Emperor, has been attached to the Ministry of Finance. He is expected to be nominated shortly as Minister of Finance, and has submitted a financial plan to the Emperor by which the English would be attracted to the country.

NEW YORK, July 10.—A Darmstadt letter says: Nothing can be more preposterous than the news sent by the Prussian Telegraph Bureau to England. There never was so much as a skirmish at Friedburg. The Third Darmstadt regiment, said to be destroyed, is quartered in this town. The Prussians have not burned Zritus, and the order of the day of Benedeck is a Prussian forgery from beginning to end. I am in a position to state that a forward movement of the Eighth Federal Army Corps, and a general attack on the Bohemian frontier, are not to be expected for five days.

The Austrian auxiliary corps, twelve thousand strong, has now arrived, and is quartered on the left bank of the Main. The troops of Baden are in movement, and will join in two or three days. The over-running of Saxony, Hesse and Hanover has no importance whatever.

The Electoral troops are quite safe at Gelnohausen. The utmost secrecy is kept up about the movements of the federal army.

Vienna letters also say that the Austrian papers make no mention of their own army, but are filled with false and distorted dispatches from Prussian and Italian sources.

THE CONTEMPT OF COURT CASE.

General Sickles' Endorsement on the Writ for His Arrest—Secretary Stanton Approves His Action, Orders Him Not to be Arrested, and if Force Was Used to Resist it with Whatever Force was Necessary.

AUGUSTA, (GA.,) July 10.—In the return to the writ of Habeas Corpus granted by the United States District Court in the case of Michael Costello, confined at the Charleston jail, the officer in command refused to obey, saying that the prisoner was held under the President's proclamation of September 15th, 1863. He also produced an order from the Secretary of War instructing him not to deliver up the prisoner on the writ of Habeas Corpus. The Court granted a continuance of the case for another day.

General Sickles made the following endorsement on the writ of attachment served on him by the United States Marshal at Charleston, summoning him for contempt:

In compliance with orders from superior authority, I decline to be arrested on this process.

Signed, DANIEL E. SICKLES,
Major General Commanding.

General Sickles received the Marshal courteously, and told him he had telegraphed to Washington for instructions. The reply of Secretary Stanton endorsed Gen. Sickles' course, and ordered him not to be arrested, and if force was used, to resist with whatever force was necessary.

This action is taken in accordance with President Lincoln's Proclamation of 1863. Judge Berjen has ordered all the proceedings to be laid before the President.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Nomination Rejected—Bonds Issued to the Pacific Railroad—Paymasters Relieved and to be Mustered Out.

WASHINGTON, July 10.—It is understood that the Senate to-day rejected the nomination of Mr. Sloanaker as Collector of the First District of Pennsylvania.

The fourth section of twenty miles of the Pacific Railroad, eastern division, having been completed, the Secretary of the Treasury has ordered the issue of bonds to the amount of $320,000 to the Company, pursuant to law. Bonds to the amount of $640,000 have also been ordered to issue for the Central Pacific Railroad Company, of California, one quarter of the work on a section of twenty miles having been completed.

An order has been issued from the War Department relieving Col. R. T. Dodge from duty in the preferred claim division of the Pay Department; also W. H. Jameson and G. B. Ely. They are to be mustered out on the 20th inst. These paymasters are to be mustered out, because, on the trial of Col. Paulding they testified to having transferred funds deposited to their credit from one bank to another, thus tending to justify Col. Paulding. Col. J. L. Hodge, who has been serving as chief paymaster in the District of Washington since Col. Paulding's arrest, has been assigned to that position. Col. W. R. Gibson takes Col. Dodge's place, and Lieut. Col. Taylor relieves Col. Jameson.

FROM MEXICO.

Success of the Liberals—A Town Taken by Storm—Tolucca, Within Thirty Miles of City of Mexico, in Danger of Capture—Austrians Deserting the Imperialists.

NEW YORK, July 10.—A Vera Cruz letter of June 5th says: General Figuerra has taken Tehucan by storm.

Tolucca, only thirty miles from the City of Mexico, is in peril of capture by the Liberals.

Colotpan is to be soon evacuated by the French garrison, who will be sent to reinforce Tampico, the latter being seriously threatened by the Republicans.

At Tabasco the Liberals disabled a French gunboat while attempting to go up the river Trontera.

A Washington City dispatch says: Senor Romero has information that on the 10th ultimo, President Juarez and his Cabinet left El Paso for Chihuahua. It is reported that the French troops at Durango were under orders to move against Chihuahua.

Letters from the City of Mexico state that Gen. Bosline is concentrating all the available French troops in San Luis Potosi for a new campaign.

FROM TENNESSEE.

The Legislature—There will be a Quorum in the House To-day—Paymaster's Safe Robbed of $10,000—Oil Well on Fire.

LOUISVILLE, July 10.—The Senate took up the Metropolitan Nashville Police bill.

Governor Brownlow's nominees were elected by eighteen against two.

It is known there will be a quorum in the House to-morrow.

Paymaster Remington's safe, in his office, was broken open last night, and $10,000 abstracted. Some members of the Sixteenth Infantry are suspected and closely watched.

Major Rowan's oil well at McMinnville, took fire on Friday evening and burned all night, thwarting all efforts to extinguish it.

Five Fatal Cases of Cholera—"Head Center" Stephens Preparing an Address to the Brotherhood.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Five cases of cholera were reported in Brooklyn this morning. All proved fatal.

Head Center Stephens is preparing an address to the Fenian Brotherhood of America, and to all friends of the Brotherhood here. He receives many invitations every day to lecture in the country.

The President and Congress and Appointments to Office.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The Tribune gives prominence to a Washington letter, which purports to give the points of an interview between Mr. Ward, of the Alleghany district, and Mr. Randall, of New York, on the subject of appointments to office. The latter is reported to have said that this matter has got to be fought out between Congress and the President. He also gave Mr. Ward notice that there was to be a general removal of all Postmasters who do not favor the President's policy.

Senator Lane's Case Hopeless.

LEAVENWORTH, (Kansas,) July 10.—A council of surgeons have decided that there is no hope for Senator Lane, although he may possibly live some day

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

Interesting Discussion on the Tariff—The Bill Passed in the House—Caucus of Union Members and Senators Postponed.

WASHINGTON, July 10, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Stewart submitted a resolution requesting the President to interpose the good offices of the United States to secure the release of persons held as prisoners in Canada and elsewhere for participation in the Fenian movement, which was laid over till to-morrow.

Mr. Poland introduced a bill to extend the time of the Alabama and Florida Railroad for the payment of a duty on the railroad iron, which was referred to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Trumbull called up the House bill to fix the number of Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, and to change certain judicial circuits. The bill was passed. It provides that no vacancy in the office of Associate Justice shall be filled until the number of Associate Justices shall be reduced to six, and makes certain changes in places of holding the Circuit Court of the United States.

Mr. Poland introduced a bill to extend the time to the Alabama and Florida Railroad to payment of duty on railroad iron, which was referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. Trumbull called up the bill for enlarging the public grounds around the Capitol, which was passed. It provides that the public grounds shall be enlarged to a plan approved by the Committee on Public Buildings, of the Senate and House of Representatives respectively, which plan is hereby directed to be deposited in the custody of the Secretary of the Interior, between First street east and First street west, in the following manner: Northwardly to the south side of North B street, and southwardly to the north side of South B street, including, in addition to so much of the reservation avenues and streets as are necessary for such extension, the two squares designated in the plan of the City of Washington as numbers 687 and 688, respectively.

Mr. Wade called up the bill to repeal the act retroceding the city and county of Alexandria to the State of Virginia, which was discussed by Messrs. Wade, Henderson, Stewart, Saulsbury, Howard and Harris, after which it was postponed until to-morrow at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Conner called up the bill to quit land titles in the State of California for the purpose of concurring in all but one of the House amendments. The Senate non-concurred in the last amendment of the House.

Mr. Howard called up the joint resolution giving the right of way to the Union Pacific Railroad and its branches through military reservations, which was, on motion of Mr. Grimes, referred to the Military Committee.

The Senate went into executive session, and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.

The Tariff bill came first, as the unfinished business of yesterday.

Mr. Wentworth addressed the House in an hour's speech, in which, speaking from an agricultural point of view, he favored a change of the present tariff, although he did not profess to be strongly in favor of the pending bill. He feared that with the high price of gold, it would prove to be prohibitory. He deprecated the mixing up of a tariff with politics. He thought that Congress should fix the amount of revenue to be raised, and then that a Commission, composed of one farmer, one manufacturer and one merchant, should apportion it among interests represented. He advocated especially the grain, wool, flax, and stock growing interest of the West. He had not expected that Congress would be called upon to increase the tariff, except upon wool, and it should be merely compensatory upon woolens. On the other hand, he had hoped for some reduction upon many articles of foreign growth or production, but the action of Congress interdicting any measures for reducing the redundant paper money, except to a very limited amount, and the unexpectedly reluctant action of the Treasurer in exercising even what power he had, had changed the whole aspect of financial affairs. The rates proposed in this were not near so high as those proposed by the revenue commission. For instance, the commission proposed 1½ cents per pound on bar iron, while the committee reported but one and one-fourth cents; three cents on sheet iron, while the committee reported but two and one-half; eight cents on chains less than a quarter of an inch in diameter, while the committee reported but five cents; eight cents on galvanized iron, while the committee proposed only four and one-half cents, and so on. There was the usual amount of hue and cry from the free trade quarters, from millionaires enriched by foreign trade. Hired hack-drivers were particularly astir in this matter. New York appeared to be the centre from whence most of these denunciations emanated. That city was the prolific mother of free trade pamphlets; but that city had other interests than those of foreign commerce. It was the seat of a great diversity of manufactures, and of the mechanic arts. He would gladly do anything to restore the shipowners of the country to their former prestige, but they ought not to require legislation for their exclusive benefit, and to the detriment of the whole country. Let all parts of the country prosper, but if one part of the country only can grow at the same time, should not a new State be preferred with half a million of people, rather than add that number to a city already swollen in numbers, that sometimes threatens to withdraw that fealty which is due to its own State. He had no doubt the House would fix the duty on railroad iron satisfactorily. There was no time now to present a new bill if this one should be rejected. The Senate would without doubt speedily remove the objections to the bill, and with some little pruning, if the currency remained in anything like its present proportions, it would yield as much revenue or more than the existing law did. We must not be too eager to rush to the field of politics. One subject more demands our consideration. Its difficulties, though great, are far from being insurmountable. The interests of every section of country commands equal regard. Congress regulates commerce. Whatever their wants may be, the States can do nothing. Over four hundred millions in our currency, over six hundred millions of foreign goods were last year purchased by our people. This annual trade absorbs the means sorely needed to fund our national debt, now rapidly falling due, and threatens to paralyze the chief source of our internal revenue. Let us, then, shirk no real duty, and be frightened at no unreal obstacle. We cannot hope, each of us, to triumph at all points in any tariff bill. Much of the business of life is a compromise; but let us adhere to our work like the gallant chieftain, Grant, if it takes all the summer, until we have brought out something that will satisfy the just expectations of the people, and then, congratulating ourselves upon harmonious action at last, we shall joyfully quit these heated halls and depart sure of a welcome home.

Mr. Morrill next addressed the House, defending the bill generally, but asserting that the demand for a higher tariff came less from New England than from other quarters. The bill, if objectionable in some points, could be amended in the Senate, and, in all events, Congress should not, and he believed would not, adjourn until some tariff bill was passed, even if it had to sit till December next. His own idea was that a moderate increase of duty on iron, would have been the wisest course to adopt, but others, to whose prudence and judgment he had to defer, thought differently, and he trusted they would now stand by their opinion.

Mr. Delano was the next speaker. With all the imperfections of this bill, he thought it ought to be passed. It was the first tariff bill that approached anything like a just protection to the agricultural interests. He hoped that the representatives of New England would stand by the bill, and not turn a cold shoulder upon it, as there seemed to be some indication of their doing.

Mr. Boutwell intimated that if there was any difficulty in New England on the subject of the tariff, it was not because New England's interests were not considered sufficiently protected, but because a bitter warfare had been waged against New England in other sections of the country on the subject of protection, and New England did not want to be held responsible for this tariff bill.

Mr. Dawes made some remarks of a similar purport. He declared that New England did not want the responsibility for this bill shifted from the shoulders of the people of the west, who had more interest in it than New England ever had in any tariff bill. New England was content with things as they were, and did not want it understood that she was forcing this tariff on the country.

Mr. Delano asked how long it was since New England had demanded a tariff, on the ground that without it her manufactures would go to ruin. If New England did not stand by this bill, it would soon find there was a vigorous west which would not fail to recollect the act.

Mr. Hubbard, of Connecticut, declared, as his belief, there was one State in New England which did want this bill. He believed that all the interests of Connecticut, manufacturing, commercial and agricultural, would be promoted by it, and he intended to vote for it.

Mr. Delano continued his speech, arguing that this bill protected the agricultural interests, and appealing to New England members not to vote against it if Western members did. There were two or three hundred thousand voters in the west who would oppose it.

Mr. Hooper declared himself in favor of protecting domestic manufacturing, and of encouraging the development of all the great productive resources of the country. His theory of protection did not differ materially from the practice of the English theory of free trade, as applied to the interests of British industry and commerce. That was to encourage free trade in all raw materials for manufacture which cannot be produced in Great Britain cheaper than any other country. That British idea of free trade was identical with his idea of what the protective policy of this country should be, as applied to the interest of American industry and commerce. That was to encourage free trade in the materials for manufacture, which we could not produce, or which we could produce cheaper than any other country, and to impose duties for the protection of American labor against competition of the cheaper labor of foreign countries on all articles which we could not produce, and for revenue alone on those other articles which we could not produce. In regard to the Tariff Bill, he was not aware that New England had asked for anything in it. The changes it proposes did not generally favor her interests. He should, however, vote for the bill, because other portions of the country than New England said it was necessary for their protection, and because he believed in the theory of protecting the labor and encouraging the developments of the great material resources of this country; but he was opposed to such high rates of duty as this tariff imposed, except as a temporary measure to meet the exigencies of present need.

Mr. Kasson spoke in opposition to the bill. He said its title should be a bill to prevent the blessings of Divine Providence from being enjoyed by the people of the United States. It was an attempt to force the people of the country to pay higher for what they need than the laws of Providence required. The bill should be recommitted, and its fundamental principle changed. If not, the American people would be protected until they would not be able to buy a solitary thing that is protected. His objection to the bill was that it was an attempt to legislate for special interests, and balance the good done to one by the injury done to another. He gave New England the credit of not being responsible for this bill. She should necessarily be moderate in her tariff and views if she adhered to her general interests. She built ships and engaged in commerce, and therefore should not be in favor of a prohibitory tariff.

Mr. Dawes asked to whose interests was the bill.

Mr. Kasson replied, in the interest of every manufacturer whose interest was honored by it. He parried several thrusts made at him in reference to his being an officer of the United States free trade league, and argued strongly against the passage of such a prohibitory measure as the pending bill.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, commented on the assertion that New England had nothing to do with the origin of this bill, and did not desire it to pass.

Mr. Dawes remarked that the New England members were willing to vote for it or against it.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, interpreted that as meaning they were willing to get western members to go for the bill, while New England would take its benefits. The gentleman from Ohio (Delano) had got frightened and went on his knees to beg New England to vote for this tariff. It was a most singular spectacle and one which he had never expected to witness in the House. He had no doubt the gentleman would be successful in the plea which he had made. It was said there was an arrangement between the wool growers and the wool manufacturers. As a western man, he knew nothing of such a bargain. He, as a Representative, did not favor any such bargain. He proposed that the bill should be recommitted to the Committee of Ways and Means, with instructions to report a bill embodying the first section of the pending bill, which was the one protecting the great wool interest, for which the gentleman from Ohio (Delano) had so ably pleaded, embodying the sixth section in reference to liquors and cigars, and the twelfth section, which protects agricultural interests; also the amendment adopted in Committee of the Whole, reducing the duty on tea and coffee one half, reducing the duty on railroad iron from one cent per pound, to 70 cents per one hundred pounds, embracing the provisions of the pending bill in reference to flax seed, linseed, hemp seed, rope seed, and oils manufactured therefrom, reducing the remaining duties embodied in the bill to not higher than the actual necessities of the particular interest required, not exceeding in any case 25 per cent over the rate now fixed by law. That was the proposition he desired to submit, and he hoped the members from the west would vote for it.

Mr. Dodge said he felt bound, before voting for the bill, to state distinctly, as a representative from a great commercial city, that he believed the greatness of commerce depended on the prosperity of the nation, and that commerce prospered in proportion with the manufacturing and agricultural interests. There were portions of this bill which he thought should be much modified, and therefore he was in favor of the proposition to postpone the bill till December next, because the exigencies of the country did not require an alteration of the tariff within the next four months; but if the bill came to a vote, he should vote for it, protesting against certain parts of it, and embodying that as a whole, the bill was for the benefit of the entire country, and that the prosperity of the country was the prosperity of the city of New York.

Mr. Garfield closed the debate, making a strong argument in favor of the principle of protection as an abstract question. Very little could be said against the doctrine of free trade, but it was only applicable in times of peace, and where countries were on the same grade of culture. War, whenever it came, overturned the doctrine of free trade in its track. The attitude of England, which had for centuries been protected to the extent of prohibition, and which was now free trade. He likened it to that of a giant, or an athlete, who, after months of training, should challenge a young sheep boy to come out and fight with him. He hoped that the proposition to recommit, and the proposition to postpone, would both be voted down, and that the bill would be amended in several particulars and made equitable as soon as possible. He believed when the country came really to understand what had been done, the cry against the bill would quiet down. He closed the debate, though Messrs. Stevens and Farquhar had proposed to submit some arguments, but declined doing so, in view of the disposition manifested by the House.

Mr. Morrill moved to fill the blank left in the second section taxing cotton with the word "three," so as to make the duty on cotton, raw or manufactured, three cents per pound. This was agreed to.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, offered an amendment to reduce the duty on railroad iron from one cent per pound to seventy-five cents per 100 pounds.

Mr. Farquhar moved to amend the amendment by reducing it to 50 cents per 100 pounds.

Mr. Rice moved to reduce the duty on salt in packages, from 42 to 25 cents, and on salt in bulk, from 30 to 24 cents per 100 pounds.

These amendments having been offered, the previous question was moved and seconded on all the pending amendments, thus preventing others from being offered. Separate votes were taken on the amendments reported from the Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union, as follows: For increasing the duty on pig iron from $9 to $10 per ton. Disagreed to without a division. For striking out crash from the articles on which a duty of 5 cents per yard and thirty per cent. ad valorem was imposed. Agreed to. For striking out discrimination made in favor of coal from the British Provinces, was agreed to, so that all imported coal is to pay $1.50 per ton. The vote stood 75 yeas to 72 nays. For allowing the Florida and Alabama Railroad Company to be credited with five years, disagreed to. All amendments increasing the duties on agriculture were agreed to. Making the lowest tax on lumber two dollars per one thousand feet, agreed to. Reducing the duty on tea to twelve and a half cents per pound; agreed to—yeas, 86; nays not counted. Reducing the duty on coffee to two and a half cents per pound; agreed to without division.

All the other amendments reported by the Committee of the Whole were considered and agreed to.

The next question was on the amendment offered by Mr. Farquhar to reduce the duty on railroad iron from one cent per pound to fifty cents per one hundred pounds, which was disagreed to by a vote of 57 yeas to 90 nays.

The amendment offered by Mr. Wilson, of Iowa, to reduce the duty on railroad iron to seventy cents per one hundred pounds, was agreed to—yeas, 100; nays, 41.

The amendment of Mr. Price to reduce the duty on salt in packages from forty-six to thirty-six cents, and in bulk from thirty to twenty-four cents per one hundred pounds, was agreed to.

The last question was on the motion of Mr. Lawrence, of Ohio, reserved yesterday, to strike out the twenty-third section organizing the Bureau of Statistics, and it was disagreed to.

All the amendments having been thus disposed of, the bill was open for further action.

Mr. Washburne, of Illinois, moved it be recommitted to the Committee of Ways and Means, with instructions to report at the next session, with such modifications and changes as the committee may see fit to make.

Mr. Wilson, of Iowa moved as an amendment that it be recommitted, with instructions to report a bill embracing the first section of the pending bill, the sixth and twelfth sections as originally reported, including the amendments reducing the duty on tea and coffee, the paragraph in relation to linseed, flaxseed, hempseed, ropeseed, and oils manufactured thereof, as provided in the bill, reducing the duty on railroad iron to seventy cents per hundred pounds, and reduce all other rates to a standard not higher than actual necessity require, not exceeding twenty-five per cent. above the rates now fixed by law.

Mr. Eldridge moved to lay the bill on the table, which was negatived.

Mr. Hotchkiss moved to reconsider the vote agreeing to the amendment removing the discrimination in favor of coal from the British Provinces.

Mr. Latham moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table, which was agreed to. Yeas 73, nays 71.

So the duty on all coal imported remains at $1.50 per ton.

Mr. Eldridge again moved to lay the bill on the table. Negatived; yeas 24, nays 72.

Mr. Wilson's amendment to the motion to recommit was negatived; nays 51, yeas not counted.

The question recurred on Mr. Washburne's motion to recommit the bill to the Committee of Ways and Means to report next December, which was negatived; yeas 62, nays 87.

The bill was then passed by a vote of 94 yeas against 53 nays, as follows:

Nays—Messrs. Allison, Ander on, Baker, Benjamin, Bergen, Broomall, Cobb, Cooke, Defrees, Donnelly, Eggleston, Eldridge, Farnsworth, Farquahar, Fink, Glossbrenner, Grider, Harring, Huckly, Harding, of Illinois, Harris, Hogan, Humphrey, Ingersoll, Julian, Kassan, Kerr, Le Blond, Marshall, McCullough, Moulton, Niblock, Nicholson, Orth, Phelps, Randall, of Kentucky, Ritter, Rogers, Ross, Rosseau, Shaaklin, Sitgreaves, Tabor, Taylor, John L. Thomas, Jr., Thornton, Trumble, Van Horn, Massachusetts, Washburn, of Illinois, Washburn, of Indiana, Wentworth, Wilson, of Iowa, Windom, Wright.

At 4:15 P. M. the House adjourned.

After adjournment, it was announced that the caucus of Union Senators and members called for this afternoon, was postponed until 7:30 to-morrow evening.

Safe Robbery at Boston.

BOSTON, July 10.—The office of Geo. H. Gooding, broker, 16 State street, was robbed last night of about $17,000, of which amount $7,000 were in gold, and the remainder in United States and other securities. The money was taken from a safe which was hauled into the middle of the floor and gutted. A person recently proposed to rent part of the office, and yesterday was engaged in papering the walls, but as he has failed to make his appearance to-day, he is suspected of being the robber. There has been no arrest yet.

Milwaukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, July 10.—Flour dull. Wheat is weak at $1,88@1,89 for No. 1. Corn declined 1c.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on Third Page.

Special Meeting of Councils.

A special meeting of Councils was held last evening, in their Chambers, in the city building. There being no quorum present in Select Council, that body were forced to adjourn without transacting any business.

In Common Council, present: Messrs. Beck, Boggs, Ford, Hare, Killen, Mawhinney, Moreland, McClelland, McGowan, McQuewan, Ogden, O'Neill, Patchell, Rebman, Simpson, Tomlinson, Torley, Weldon, Wright and President Steel.

The minutes of the preceding meeting were read and approved, after which Mr. Ford presented the following ordinance.

Section 1. Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor, Aldermen and citizens of Pittsburgh, in Select and Common Council assembled, and it is hereby enacted by the same: That the privilege be and is hereby granted to the Pittsburgh & Connellsville Railroad Company to extend their track from the line of their property at the foot of Try street, (across Second street,) at its intersection with Try, to a point on Try above Second and south of Third street, to be designated by the Street Committee, to connect with the present track of the Pittsburgh & Steubenville Railroad Company.

Section 2. That the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad Company, for the privilege herein granted, pay the City Treasurer for the use of the city, the annual sum of five hundred dollars.

Section 3. That all ordinances or parts of ordinances conflicting herewith be, and the same are, hereby repealed.

Mr. Moreland spoke at considerable length on the subject, and said he had been informed that the oposition made to the switch laid on Try street by the Fort Pitt Coal Company was caused by the wish of the Connellsville Railroad Company to lay a track along Try to near Pennsylvania Avenue, where they have leased for a coal yard.

A motion was made to set aside the second and third reading and have the ordinance passed.

Mr. Killen moved that the ordinance be laid over until next meeting. Mr. O'Neil urged the immediate passage of the ordinance, believing it to be nothing but an act of justice to the Connellsville road, who have been subjected to persecution without end.

Mr. Ford spoke at some length, sustaining the view of the case taken by Mr. O'Neil.

It was then moved that the rules be suspended and the ordinance read three times and passed.

After an animated debate Mr. O'Neil moved for the calling of the yeas and nays on the question.

A vote was taken, resulting in a suspension of the rules, by a vote of 20 yeas to 4 nays.

Mr. Moreland then offered an amendment to the ordinance that the point of connection on Try street, between the Pittsburgh and Connellsville and Pittsburgh and Steubenville railroad companies be designated by the engineers of both companies.

Mr. O'Neill said he was in favor of leaving the matter in the hands of the Street Committee, having as much confidence in their integrity as he had in the probity of the engineers of either road.

After an animated debate a vote was taken and the amendment was declared lost.

The following items of unfinished business, reported from Select Council, for concurrence, were then taken up.

An ordinance for the erection of a gas lamp at the corner of Bluff and Miltenberger streets, in the Eighth ward, was concurred in.

The report of the Gas Committee was received and accepted.

A resolution transferring $1,000 from the Sanitary Committee Appropriation, No. 21, to the Board of Health Appropriation, No. 14. Concurred in.

An ordinance for the widening of Webster street from Arthurs street to the city line was concurred in.

Mr. Ford presented the following, which was adopted.

Resolved, That the Presidents of Councils be added to the committee appointed to attend to the preparation of a city digest.

An ordinance granting the Fort Pitt Coal Company the right to construct a switch in the vicinity of their property on Try street, and which had been laid over at a former meeting, was called up by Mr. Moreland, who moved its passage.

Mr. Ford seconded the motion, and spoke at considerable length in advocacy of the ordinance, stating that the Fort Pitt Coal Company were as much entitled to the privilege of occupying the street as any other corporate body.

Mr. Moreland thought there was some misapprehension resting in the minds of the Councils regarding this question, which he was desirous of dissipating. In the first place he had heard it stated that there was a conflict between the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company and that of the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Company. This he declared to be entirely fallacious. There could be no conflict. The State Legislature granted the Connellsville road, in their charter, certain rights and privileges which would enable them at any time to connect with the Pittsburgh and Steubenville Railroad, provided that they comply with the provisions contained in the Legislative enactment. This matter being made clear, he hoped that the Fort Pitt Coal Company would be allowed to resume work immediately.

After some debate, Mr. Ford offered the following amendment to the ordinance, which was accepted.

Provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent the city from revoking the privilege granted by this ordinance at any time upon sixty days notice being given.

The ordinance was then passed.

Mr. Killen presented a communication from Kramer & Rahm, in relation to the assessment of their property on Bedford street. Referred to Finance Committee.

Mr. Moreland handed in his resignation as member of Council from the Sixth ward, stating that he was about to remove to the country and would therefore be ineligible to the office.

Mr. O'Neill hoped the gentleman would not sever his connection with Council for the present, as his services were very valuable and could not well be dispensed with.

Mr. Moreland expressed his regret at being compelled to part with his associates in Council, but pressed his resignation, which was accepted.

It was moved that the President of Council proceed to appoint committees in the various wards to collect funds for the relief of the Portland sufferers.

Several gentlemen expressed themselves as unwilling to take the responsibility of collecting funds on their shoulders, thinking that other parties had as much right and more time.

The motion being lost, Mr. Robb offered the following:

Resolved, That the sum of five thousand dollars be and is hereby appropriated in aid of the sufferers by the recent fire at Portland, Maine.

After a slight debate, the resolution was lost by a vote of 10 to 12.

On motion, adjourned.

Fire on Fifth Street—Arrest on Suspicion of Arson.

This morning, about one o'clock, an alarm of fire was sounded, and on investigation it was discovered that the photographic gallery of J. H. Van Pelt, situated in the fourth story of the Brewer Building on the southwest corner of Fifth and Market streets was on fire. The Fire Department was promptly on the ground, and the flames were extinguished without doing any material damage. The proprietor of the gallery, Mr. Van Pelt, who was sleeping in the gallery at the time, was arrested and taken to the Mayor's office on suspicion of having set the place on fire. Mr. Van P. had been boarding in Allegheny, but some three weeks since his wife went to spend a few weeks with her husband's friends in the vicinity of Wheeling, since which time he has slept in the gallery with an operator named J. A. Pyle, who was also arrested.

Mr. Van Pelt states that he had been spending the evening at Duprez & Benedict's Minstrels, and had just retired but a few hours previous to the alarm. The only motive he could have in destroying the building would be to recover his insurance, which amounts to $3,000. His stock he alleges to be worth almost twice that amount. The gentleman is very respectably connected, and we sincerely trust the matter will be made clear to-day, as it doubtless will.

"Sweat Cloth Man" in Limbo.

We noticed a few days since the arrest of one David Wallace, on complaint of Constable John Lutz, and his committal to jail by Alderman Humbert to answer a charge of gambling. He was in some way attached to one of the circuses which recently exhibited here, and during the performance catered to the enjoyment of outsiders by affording opportunity to indulge in the "ten die sweat cloth" or "chucherluck" game. On Monday John Coyle, Esq., obtained a writ of habeas corpus, with a view to secure the discharge of Wallace. The writ was returned yesterday, as directed, District Attorney Duff and Gen. F. H. Collier, appearing for the Commonwealth, or respondent. After hearing the evidence upon which the magistrate based his action, it appearing that Wallace was arrested in the act of playing the game, the court ordered his release upon giving satisfactory bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance for trial. In default he was remanded to prison.

Refused to Pay the Costs.—Edward Cosgrave entered suit against his two daughters, yesterday, before Alderman Humbert. The girls were arrested, but after a hearing were discharged, the evidence exculpating them from all criminality in the premises. Cosgrave was ordered to pay the costs, but refusing to comply with the sentence, he was sent to jail for ten days. He was subsequently released after paying the costs.

Charged With Stealing a Coat.—Christopher Maudlin was before Alderman Albeitz, yesterday, charged with the larceny of a light linen coat from the boarding-house of Jacob Peters, situated on Pike street, in the Fifth ward. Christopher admitted the coat was not his own, and being unable to state satisfactorily how it had come into his possession, he was required to give bail to the amount of $500 for his appearance at Court.

Arm Broken.—A newsboy named Patrick Barry, took a seat on a dray yesterday for the purpose of riding out Pennsylvania Avenue. At the corner of Locust the dray ran over a huge boulder, throwing the lad to the ground with such violence as to break his arm. He was taken to the residence of his mother on Webster street, in the Sixth ward, and Surgeon E. Donnell called in.

Killed.—James Lynch, a brakesman on the Pittsburgh and Erie Railroad, was killed a few days since, by being struck on the head with the timbers of a bridge under which a train was passing.

The Portland Conflagration—Description of the City—Churches and other Buildings Destroyed—Suffering of the Inhabitants—Will Pittsburghers do their Full Duty?

At the meeting of the citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity, held at the Mayor's office on the 9th inst, to consider the case of the sufferers by the recent terrible conflagration in Portland, Maine, gentlemen present, formerly residents of Portland, were requested to prepare a statement concerning that city and the extent of its recent devastation, to be published for the information of our citizens.

The gentlemen referred to are of the opinion that nothing they can say will convey a more vivid and painful picture of the desolation which now reigns over that city, once so beautiful, than has already been conveyed by the telegraphic reports which have reached us and all parts of our land. It is not, therefore, their intention, in the following brief sketch, to do more than to speak of the city as it was, in some of its respects, and to identify the locality and territorial extent of the ravages of the devouring fire, and to confirm the estimate already made, in the minds of this community, of the loss sustained by families, merchants and manufacturers, and by the whole people, in the check inevitably put upon the material prosperity, and upon their social, educational and religious institutions.

Portland, from its location, was a city of rare beauty, as admitted by all who have seen it. On a tongue of land on Casco Bay, with its clusters of islands, surrounded on three sides by water, in length between three and four miles, and in breadth about one-third of a mile, rising from the centre to either extremity like an amphitheatre, it presented to the observer from the bay an object seldom seen. Its tasteful residences, its numerous spires, its abundance of large shade trees, completely covering many entire streets, and rising above the dwellings, and giving to it the name of the Forest City, have been the object of remark by all visitors. Its harbor, perfectly safe and easily approached, is one of the finest and best in the United States. Founded in 1632, it has previous to the recent most disastrous fire been destroyed three times—in 1675 and 1690 by the Indians, and 1775 by the British. None of its former losses will compare at all with the last. Indeed, it may be questioned whether any city in our land, compared with it in size or wealth, ever suffered so severely. It is only about eighteen years since Portland began to exhibit signs of energy and growth. Previous to that time the loss of her West India trade, on which she had been almost wholly dependent, had crippled all her activities. Her stores were closed, her streets were silent, her avenues were deserted, and her young men, on reaching their majority, at once left for the West or South. The opening of railroads to different parts of the State, and especially the road to Montreal, at once gave a new impulse to trade of every kind. Manufactures were established, ships crowded her harbor, and lines of British steamers connected with the Atlantic and St. Lawrence Railroad. The growth of this city since that time has been constant. The population in 1840 was but 15,000; now 33,000. The fire of July 4th and 5th has desolated a tract one and one-fourth miles long by one-third of a mile wide—two hundred and fifty acres of the business part of the city. Many entire streets of stores are gone. Manufactories, hotels, churches and school houses, are swept away. Very many long streets, with fine residences and rows of stately elms, are wholly destroyed. Wood's white marble hotel, five stories high, is with the ruins. The Catholic church, valued at $100,000, is burned. The Paysen church, connected with which are so many sacred memories, is swept away. The Atheneum, with its large library and collection in natural history, is wholly lost. The elegant and spacious city and county buildings, with a hall unsurpassed in the country, and which cannot be replaced for less than $800,000, is also burned. The burnt district was the business part of the city. There were the banks, the lawyers' offices, the jewelers, the book stores, the printing offices, the dry goods jobbers, the shoe dealers, the stores and shops of every kind. In all, seven churches and eight hotels were burned.

The estimated loss of $10,000,000 will be seen to be too small, when the loss of Brown's sugar refinery and the city and county buildings, with their contents, will be fully one-fifth of that sum. Eleven thousand people are houseless.

The rapidity of the flames permitted but little to be saved. Men who were independent a few days ago are beggars to-day. The beauty, comfort and wealth of the city are swept away. All local, and it is feared many foreign, insurance companies will be unable to pay their losses. Suffering and want abound. In a few months the rigors of a northern winter will be upon them. Shelter must be provided soon, or greater suffering be experienced. Seldom has there been a stronger claim on the sympathies and charities of our people.

Needs Renovation.

At the meeting of Councils last evening Mr. Seibert, a member from the Sixth ward, in the course of the debate on the Board of Health appropriation, made a strange argument in favor of a total renovation of the Council chambers. Our attention being thus attracted to the matter, we took a glance at the interior of both chambers, and from what we saw we fully coincide with Mr. Seibert's views. The walls were covered with a bright grained glazed paper, but time has had its effect upon them, and they are now of a leathery hue, with great blotches here and there, while in one place the plastering is discernable. The furniture is of an antique style, and as one looks at the ancient pieces he cannot forego a feeling of veneration for them; in fact they look as if they might have, and maybap did, grace to the chamber of our town council in the days when we owed allegiance to the house of "Hanover." We hope the "City Fathers" will take the hint so kindly tendered to them by Mr. Seibert, and have these apartments placed in such a condition that strangers may visit them without being reminded so forcibly of the somberness of that dingy Venetian judgment hall in which met the dreaded "Council of Ten."

Result of the Investigation.—The investigation by the Port Inspectors of the circumstances attending the recent collision between the steamboats Chieftain and Fayette, in the Monongahela, near Hazelwood, has resulted in the exoneration of the officers of the Chieftain and the suspension for six months of the license of Thomas Hughes, pilot of the Fayette.

Free Fight.—A free fight was indulged in last night, about twelve o'clock, in a tenement house on Webster street. Some eight or ten burly Irishmen participated in it, but fortunately the police put in an early appearance and arrested a number of the belligerents. No heads worthy of report were broken.

Murder.—Two negro waiters named Flinton Robinson and Addison Thomas, had a quarrel on Monday at the McLure House, Wheeling, where they were both employed. Thomas drew a revolver and shot Robinson twice, who fell over and expired. The deceased resided in Washington, Pa.

Sale of Stocks.—The following were the prices realized last evening at the regular sale of stocks at the Commercial Sales Rooms of A. M'Ilwaine, Auctioneer, 103 Smithfield street:

Allegheny National Bank..........$58,37½

Inaugurated.—The early closing movement was inaugurated yesterday, by Market street merchants, nearly all having closed their stores at five o'clock p. m. Many Liberty street merchants we understand, design doing likewise.

Race at Oakland Park.—At Oakland Park, yesterday, a trial of speed took place between Mr. Musgrave's mare and a horse owned by Mr. Rush—mile heats, best three in five. The mare won in three straight heats.

Charge of Fraud.—Alderman Butler, yesterday, committed Joseph Lacey for a further hearing on a charge of fraud, preferred by Vide Parker.

The Common Pleas Court continued in session yesterday, hearing the argument list. Nothing of general importance transpired.

Horse Fair.—The lovers of the turf, in Cleveland, are to hold a horse fair in August next, $5,000 in premiums are to be offered.

Second Postponement of the United States Prize Concert at Chicago.

The manager of the United States Prize Concert of Chicago, which was to have taken place yesterday, announces a second postponement. He states that it is absolutely necessary to secure full and satisfactory reports from agents, in order that the registry of all tickets sold may be correctly made, previous to drawing. Special agents have been appointed to visit points from which local agents have failed to make proper and reliable reports, and as soon as all the tickets disposed of are properly registered, (as they only can be on reception of full reports from agents,) the concert and drawing will take place.

Circulars were sent to all the local agents expressly and earnestly urging them to report in time for the drawing on the 9th of July, but hundreds of these agents failed to report as instructed.

When the reports shall have been received, and a correct registry of tickets made, Ten Days' Notice of the Concert and Drawing will be published in the Chicago papers, and in the leading papers throughout the United States.

Col. Black's Remains.—A meeting of members of the late Sixty-second Pennsylvania Regiment has been called for to-morrow evening, to take action concerning the bringing on of the remains of S. W. Black, their lamented Colonel.

Provisional Government Officers at Galveston.

GALVESTON, July 10.—The Secretary of State and acting Governor Bell, officially announced to Chief Justice Austin, that the officers of the Provisional Government will continue to discharge the duties of their respective offices until orders are received from the President to the contrary.

MARRIED.

GREGG—SMITH.—On Tuesday afternoon, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Western avenue, by the Rev. Joseph R. Kerr, Mr. JAMES P. GREGG, JR., to Miss BARBARA W. SMITH, all of Allegheny city. No cards.

Open daily from 9 to 2 o'clock, also on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, from May 1st to November 1st, from 7 to 9 o'clock, and from November 1st to May 1st, from 6 to 8 o'clock.
Deposits received of all sums of not less than One Dollar, and a dividend of the profits declared twice a year, in June and December. Interest has been declared semi-annually in June and December since the Bank was organized, at the rate of six per cent. a year.
Interest, if not drawn out, is placed to the credit of the depositor as principal, and bears the same interest from the first days of June and December, compounding twice a year without troubling the depositor to call, or even to present his pass book. At this rate money will double in less than twelve years.
Books containing the Charter, By-Laws, Rules and Regulations, furnished gratis, on application at the office.

THE UNITED STATES SENATORSHIP.

We adverted a few days ago to the fact that the canvass for the next vacancy in the Senate had been inaugurated in a somewhat unusual way by Col. FORNEY in his speech at Lebanon.

Till then we had observed an unbroken silence on the subject, of which some of our readers were rather disposed to complain, in view of the frequent paragraphs in eastern newspapers informing us who were the candidates, and very carefully ignoring the end of the State in which we live, as though it were of no account geographically or politically, in making up the State for the next six years. We thought we understood these things, and could afford to overlook the slight that seemed to be put upon us, in the assurance that when the time came the west would be found strong enough, and united enough, to cause its claims to be respected. The demonstration of Col. FORNEY has seemed to necessitate the breaking of that silence in order to avoid having it misunderstood.

We must be excused, therefore, for saying that if it has been interpreted to mean this important portion of the State does not intend to insist upon its rightful claim to the succession, those who so think have greatly mistaken our opinions, as they would seem to have forgotten the past political history of the Commonwealth. A reference to that will show that the question is not now even an open one.

If the aspirants beyond the mountains, who seem to have regarded the field as their own, and of whose merits and capabilities we do not now propose to speak, will take the trouble of looking into Hildreth, or any other early annalists, they will find this point was made on behalf of this section as early as 1791, when it consisted only of the four Counties of Westmoreland, Washington, Allegheny and Fayette, comprising a population not perhaps exceeding forty thousand souls. The result was a severe struggle of two years' duration, during which the State was left unrepresented as to one of its Senators, and terminating in the concession of the western right in the election of ALBERT GALLATIN, of Fayette, who, being declared ineligible on the ground of alienage was succeeded by the late distinguished JAMES ROSS, then of Washington, but subsequently of this city, who was re-elected in 1797, and continued in office until 1803. Mr. Ross was followed by one of the MCCLAYS and by GREGG, both living beyond the Allegheny range, but both claiming by virtue of their residence west of the Susquehanna river, which was then plausibly insisted on as the fair dividing line, in view of the great disparity of population between the East and West. With these exceptions, however, the succession of Western Senators has been kept up, almost without interruption, through LOWRIE, of Butler, LACOCK, of Beaver, MARKS and WILKINS, of Allegheny, STURGEON, of Fayette, BIGLER, of Clearfield, and COWAN, of Westmoreland—as we showed a few days ago. It is but reasonable to suppose that if in the face of the immense growth of the West within the last half century, we are to turn a new leaf, it will only be when the blood of the West, which has given the State so many of its gifted men, has run out, and some transcendant intellect—some giant growth of the Atlantic fringe—shall have shot up to such dimensions as to overshadow the State, and dwarf us of the West into mere pigmies in the comparison. When that comes—as it has not yet—we shall be compelled to yield the point, of course, upon the principle of de tur dignissimo.

We do not know whether the facts we have just stated are as generally known to the present generation as they ought to be. It may not be amiss, however, to remind the people of some things which the politicians may have forgotten, and which establish very conclusively the fact, not only that there was a time when our forerunners here did entertain the opinion that it was important to them to have a representative in the Senate, and were disposed to struggle, and did struggle for it successfully, even when their numbers and interests were as nothing in the comparison with those of the present day, but there has been no time since at which this important right has been waived.

PRIVATE advices from Washington lead us to conclude that such a duty on foreign iron will not be obtained, as the manufacturers in this country think essential to the stability of that branch of industry. On coal no difficulty of practical moment is apprehended. What fate awaits the bill after it shall pass Congress is difficult to predict. The President is acting boldly with the free trade party, and no less from present association than from traditionary ideas, is disposed to veto it. If he shall return it with objections some doubts may well be felt for its ultimate success. Some of the western and some of the eastern Republicans give unmistakable symptoms of a disposition not to come up to the exigencies of the case. They fail to consider how nearly, on many articles of production, the excise duties come of neutralizing the impost duties. Only by concession which shall constrain the support of this class of members can the bill be carried over a veto.

THE UNCONDITIONAL UNION MEN of the Southern States propose holding a Convention in September, to express their views upon the situation of public affairs. They design to make this meeting a fair offset for the July Convention summoned at Philadelphia, next month, by the Conservative and Democratic members of Congress. Gov. HAMILTON, of Texas, heads this movement. He thinks the men who stood by the Government during the rebellion have as good a right to demand a hearing, as open rebels and sympathizers with them.

JOHN MINOR BOTTS, in the address he delivered at Baltimore on the Fourth, did not endorse the President's Policy. He said:

"In my opinion the first duty of the President of the United States was to have had every prominent leading rebel in the South instantaneously arrested. [Immense applause.] If I had been in the exercise of that power (I can only say what I would have done) I would have had every prominent and leading rebel in every State arrested. [Great applause.] And I would have had them tried by court martial. [Applause.] And I would have had them convicted of treason [enthusiastic applause], and condemned to death under the Constitution and laws of the country. [Tremendous applause.] And if Mr. Johnson had done this, and had then chosen to pardon all, I should not have complained. If he had chosen to banish all I should not have gone into mourning. [Laughter and applause.] If he had chosen to pardon all I should have been content. I have no personal feeling of animosity toward these people. They are my fellow countrymen. They are my old political and personal associates. But I should have an example made that would have been a lesson to future generations—[applause]—for the perpetuity and safety of this great Republic in the future. I might have mourned and I might have wept over the execution of many of them as my former friends and associates, still I could not have helped exclaiming: "You have brought your fate upon yourselves, and you deserve it." [Applause.] I have not been one of those to permit my personal relations to be marred by my political feelings, and I have no feeling of personal animosity against one of them. But I say that the Constitution should have been vindicated, the law ought to have been vindicated, and treason should have been made odious. [Great applause.] I would have taken such a course, and would have had Mr. Johnson take such a course as would have deterred any future generation from attempting the same thing again."

As to his own party affiliation for the future, he made this statement:

"I am not to abandon those who agree with me on this great question of the restoration of this Union, because there are radicals in the party, and when, if I do not go with them, I have to go into another party, where there is more radicalism, and a more obnoxious radicalism, than I find in the great Union party. Of all radicalism that which is most obnoxious to me is the radicalism of the Democracy. [Applause.] And I will vote with any party, I do not care who or what it is, to beat it down and keep it down. [Great applause.] Much as I suffered, and much as we all suffered in this war, I would, so help me God, ten times over go through another rebellion than to see that party restored, and to see the great war carried on by the United States, the hundreds of thousands of lives that have been lost, and the millions and tens of millions of money that has been expended, all go for nothing to restore that party who are alone responsible for all this. [Immense applause.] Get up another party! There can be but two parties in this Union, and one is a loyal party, and the other is a disloyal party. [Great applause.] He who does not vote with the loyal party must vote with the disloyal, and vote to bring the Rebels and Copperheads into power again. [Applause.] I know what the object of this party is, for they attempted to initiate me into it. "What party do you propose to raise," I inquired, "to bring up the old Democratic party, the Rebels and Copperheads into power again?" "Oh, no; not at all; not all." "What do you mean to do? Out of what element do you propose to raise this party?" "Why, the old-fashioned Jackson Democracy." "The old-fashioned Jackson Democracy? Why, I have heard that much-hackneyed phrase of playing the play of Hamlet with the part of Hamlet left out, but if ever it was aptly applied it is when you propose to raise a Democratic party and leave all the Democratic party out. And if you leave out the Rebels of the South and the Copperheads of the North, the rotunda of the Capitol will hold them all three times over. If you do not vote with the loyal party you are obliged to vote to bring that disloyal party back into power, and I am opposed to all parties and to all measures that are calculated to bring about such an end."

PERSONAL.

—J. C. Breckinridge lives at Niagara, C. W.

—Forrest's first ten nights in San Francisco netted for him $22,000 in gold.

—The World says that Henry J. Raymond always pairs off with himself on political questions.

—The rank of "General of the Army," just conferred upon Garibaldi, is equivalent to that of marshal of France, or of a field-marshal in England.

—Senator Fessenden has lost heavily by the fire at Portland. He fears that one-half of his property has been totally destroyed, including his private papers and valuable library.

—Francis A. Boyd, a negro, has applied to the United States Court at Louisville for a copywright on a book, a poem in three parts, entitled "To Columbians," and dedicated to Lincoln, Grant and Butler.

—Mrs. Dodds, one of the graduating class at Antioch College, was not allowed to participate in the commencement exercises because she wore a bloomer costume. At the close she declined to receive the honors conferred by the College.

—The fortune of Miss Fletcher, the fiancee of the Hon. Mr. Cotton, varies from £23,000 to £47,000 per annum, thus rivalling that of Miss Tempest, the late Dowager Marchioness of Londonderry, who derived it from the same source—viz, coal.

—It is still a disputed question in Paris whether Jean Jacques Rousseau died a natural death or fell by his own hand. A recent dissertation by Dr. Dubois d'Amiens, perpetual secretary of the Academy of Medicine, argues that Rosseau committed suicide.

—A Mobile paper says: "The Austrian Embassador arrived back at Mobile, from Atlanta, with nineteen ex Confederate officers, all of whom have accepted positions in the Austrian army. Large numbers of Mobilians will accompany him on his return to Europe, starting on Thursday, both as officers and privates. Among the officers are Gen. Arlington and Colonel P. Barry.

—Field-Marshal Wrangel, who fought against Napoleon I. and commanded the Prussian army at the beginning of the late Schleswig campaign, but has since been relieved from all active duty, has left for the front, to die, as he says, on horseback. Before his departure he left cards for his acquaintances, on which were the words: "Wrangel, Volunteer in the Third Cuirassiers."

—The Duke of Hamilton according to the English papers, is a reckless person. He lately bought a cow for which he paid $12,500, and at the last Derby he "laid" £180,000 ($900,000) to £6,000 against Hermit, but this latter was subsequently cancelled. Still later he struck a man in a night-brawl, and was therefore "wanted" by the police, but went off to Paris to see the race for the "grand prix," and so escaped arrest. This history is recommended to the "sensation" novelist by the "Flaneur" of the London Star, as furnishing material for a startling story.

—Among the lady signers of a petition to Parliament for the right of voting are Mrs. and Miss Boucherett, Miss Helen Taylor, (step-daughter of J. S. Mill,) Lady Goldsmid, Miss Garret, (physician,) Madame Bodichon, Mrs. Peter Taylor, (wife of P. A. Taylor, M. P.,) Mrs. Grote, (wife of the historian,) Mrs. Mary Howitt, Miss Cobbe, Mrs. Sergeant Manning, Miss Winkworth, Mrs. Stansfeld, (wife of Jas. Stansfeld, M. P., and member of the Government,) Isa Craig, (Knox has recently been added to the last named,) and others well known as belonging to the most cultivated circles of London society.

—A paper published in the district of Avozelles, La., has a sad story of the condition of agricultural property there: "Nearly nine-tenths of the alluvial lands of our parish are under water, and four-fifths of the cotton and corn planted are destroyed by the overflow. In the districts where the water has not done the mischief, myriads of grasshoppers are at work, in advance of the caterpillar invasion, eating up everything in the fields. Never, during or before the war, have we witnessed a worse prospect for our unfortunate people."

GENERAL NEWS.

—Europe has 1,480 theatres.

—A woman gave birth to a bouncing boy in a court room in New York, during the session of the court, one day last week.

—The suit against Ex-Postmaster Fowler of New York, who embezzled public moneys and fled to Mexico in 1860, has been abandoned by the Government. He will probably return home.

—General Grant is of the opinion that there should be at least one full regiment of cavalry in each Southern State, in order to prevent outrages, and to give proper protection to loyal citizens, white and black.

—A Lowell soldier, who lost the sight of one eye by the concussion of a shell at Port Hudson, had a scrimmage on the 4th, received a heavy blow under the sightless eye, and can now see with it as well as ever.

—The Young Men's Christian Association of Chicago are to open a boarding house for young girls who have no homes of their own in the city, and have appealed to the Chicago ladies for assistance in furnishing the establishment. Such an institution is calculated to save thousands from destruction.

—The suicide season seems to have set in at Hartford, Connecticut, no less than five cases having occurred in that city in the space of twenty-four hours. One man poisoned himself with strychnine, two others shot themselves, and two women jumped into the Connecticut river. The last two were rescued before life was extinct, and saved.

—It is stated that the Confederate General Early is preparing a history of his campaigns. We presume that General Sheridan will be a prominent figure in the book. Early may well say of Sheridan—

Great let me call him, for he conquered me.

—Tempus fugit has been translated fly time, referring to the immediate present.

—The population of London has been estimated by the Registrar General at 3,045,946, on the 8th of April, 1866, five years from the date of the last census. Of this population 2,629,337 are within the metropolitan parliamentary boroughs, represented by eighteen members of the House of Commons; the 425,601 persons are not within the limits of any of the boroughs.

—In consequence of a falling off in the foreign demand for Scotch made whisky, it has been arranged by a few of the leading Scotch distillers to close their establishments for a longer or shorter period, as circumstances may determine. Carsbridge distillery, which can produce fifty thousand gallons weekly, and employs nearly one hundred hands, is to be closed for two months.

—A Paris newspaper states that Marshal Magnan expressed the following opinion upon the famous quadrilateral: "Had I the honor of being ordered to attack Venice, I should not give a thought to this traditional hobgoblin. I should assail the city from the sea. I have ascertained, personally, there is enough water in the Lagune to do this. I should be certain to take it with the flatboats and gunboats. As soon as Venice was in my possession, the four fortresses would fall into my hands like ripe apples."

BROWN'S VERMIFUGE COMFITS, OR WORM LOZENGES.—Much sickness undoubtedly, with children and adults, attributed to other causes, is occasioned by worms. The "VERMIFUGE COMFITS," although effectual in destroying worms, can do no positive injury to the most delicate child. This valuable combination has been successfully used by physicians, and found to be safe and sure in eradicating worms, so hurtful to children.

Symptoms of worms in children are often overlooked. Worms in the stomach and bowels cause irritation which can be removed only by the use of a sure remedy. The combination of ingredients used in making BROWN'S "VERMIFUGE COMFITS" is such as to give the best possible effect with safety.

SEMPER PARATUS.
PRO BO NO PUBLICO.

Yet [illegible] say 'tis a heinous crime the way business [illegible]ducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. [illegible]rs say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this: That there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish the natives. Hear me while I give you the prices of a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low: Ladies' Congress Lasting gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00; Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $3.50; Children's Slippers at 60c; Children's Morocco Shoes at 50c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' Congress lasting gaiter morocco boot, ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.50 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fit up to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies' and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. If in selling low, we plead guilty; and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Inviting you to call and see for yourselves we leave the subject with you.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
Of New York.
ASSETS, OVER
Sixteen Million Dollars.

To meet the choice of such present or future members as may prefer to have the amount insured paid in instalments to their widows or heirs, rather than in one sum, this Company is prepared to insert in its policies a clause agreeing that in lieu of the payment of the policy and profits in one sum, an equitable amount, to be determined by the Company, may be paid annually or semi-annually for any specified number of years (say from five to twenty-five years.)

EXAMPLE.—Suppose a policy of $10,000, with additions amounting to $5,000 more, should become payable by reason of the death of the person insured, the Company, in lieu of the payment of $15,000 in one sum would be able to give (assuming interest as realized in the past) an annuity for ten years or over $2,000 per annum, or for twenty years an annuity of over $1,300 per annum.

This form of annuity will remove the anxiety which may exist in the minds of some policy-holders lest the future provision they have made for their families, should be ineffectual or transitory in its duration, either through unsafe investment, unwise expenditure, or other uncertainties incidental to contingent trusts.

It is not only free from the ordinary dangers of investment, but its punctual and full payment is secured by the large and solid cash resources and good faith of this institution, which thus, to a certain extent, becomes the Guardian or Trustee of the survivors. Hence the provision may be considered, humanly speaking, beyond any adverse contingency.

All such deferred payments or annuities will share equitably in the profits or dividends of the Company.

This Company will also issue SURVIVORSHIP ANNUITIES, which provide for survivors during the whole period of life, and DEFERRED ANNUITIES, by which individuals may provide for themselves in advanced age.

The Houseman Murder at Cookstown—Trial of One of the Alleged Homicides.

Our readers will recollect that in April last the body of James Houseman, a resident of Cookstown, Fayette county, was found in the river near that place, giving unmistakable evidence of having been most foully dealt with. Mr. Houseman disappeared about the 3d or 4th of the month, and the only explanation given by his wife was that he must have fallen into the river from sand flats which he had been engaged in unloading. A man named Richard Thairwell had been on apparently intimate terms with Mrs. Houseman, both prior and subsequent to her husband's disappearance, and on the finding of the body, some twenty days after Mr. H. had been lost sight of, they were charged with the murder and arrested. Upon the finding of the body a bullet hole was discovered in the head, and a rope found tied about the neck, this giving rise to the suspicion of murder.

The Court of Oyer and Terminer of Fayette county assembled on Monday, and it having been concluded to try the alleged homicides separately, the case of Thairwell was called up.

After the indictment had been read and the plea of the prisoner, "not guilty," recorded, counsel for defense asked leave to withdraw the plea and submit to the Court, Thairwell having, while under arrest, and on his way to the prison, confessed his participation in the murder. Judge Gilmore refused to allow the withdrawal, holding that the jury were alone competent to fix the grade of the crime.

After the empanelling of a jury, and before proceeding further, the counsel for Mrs. Houseman (whose case it had been arranged to take up immediately after the conclusion of Thairwell's) asked to have a jury selected to try her, and placed under care of court officers, as her case would be more or less affected by the evidence elicited on the trial of her alleged associate in the crime. This was refused, and also the request to exclude jurors from the court room during the trial.

The evidence then proceeded, and up to the adjournment of the court the following, in substance, had been elicited: After Houseman's disappearance, and upon the statement of his wife that he must have been drowned, the river was dragged for two days. At the inquest held on the body Thairwell identified it. The bullet which caused the hole in the head, entered an inch and a half behind the right ear, and passed out at the left temple. The rope was wound around the neck three times, was about three feet in length, and on one end there was a knot, apparently as if it had been tied to a stone or edged substance.

Houseman, whilst being conveyed to prison by three persons, in a spring wagon, without, as stated, being influenced by threats or promises, made a confession. It seems from his statement that the wife was the leading spirit, and that she had importuned him on several occasions to kill her husband, and had procured poison for the purpose. The murder was committed whilst the victim was asleep, in the night. Thairwell took a gun and shot him through the head. The wife, who was sitting on the bed, then caught hold of her husband, so disposed his body that the blood from the wound would flow into a tub, which had been brought in for the purpose, and when life was well nigh extinct, wrapped a quilt about the head. The body was rolled over the hill into the river, a rope tied to the neck, and getting into a skiff the murderers went up the river some distance, the woman holding the rope attached to the body, and the man rowing. The end of the rope was attached to an iron axle, which sufficed to sink the murdered man. The design of the murderers was to live together subsequently "as if nothing had happened."

The case was probably concluded yesterday.

The Law of Substitutes.

On the 7th inst. Judge Hampton delivered the following opinion in the cases of Harvey Robinson and Robert B. Robinson against Baldwin township:

On the 29th of July and the 2d of August, 1864, the plaintiffs, being liable to draft and duly enrolled in Baldwin township, put in, each, a substitute, which were duly credited to the quota of that township, under the call of the President. They each paid to these substitutes a sum much greater than three hundred dollars, and they now seek to recover three hundred dollars each from the township under the provisions of the 3d section of the Act of Assembly of the 25th of August, 1865.

The defence [illegible] that, as their substitutes were put in prior to the passage of the act, their claim does not fall within its provisions; that the 3d section is not retrospective, but prospective merely. The portion of that section referred to is in the following language, to wit:

"If any person liable to draft in any ward, township or district shall furnish, and have mustered into the service of the United States, for the term of one year, or longer, a substitute, credited to the ward, township or district, and if said substitute has received the full consideration agreed to be paid by the person who made the contract with him, such person so furnishing the substitute as aforesaid shall be entitled to receive the amount of bounty from the county, city, ward, township or district to which the substitute may be accredited."

The only doubt I have about giving to this section the construction contended for by the defendant's counsel, is raised by the fact that some of the provisions in other sections of this Act, as well as in the Act of the 25th of March, to which this is a supplement, are clearly and by express terms retrospective, legalizing many things done before the passage of either Act, for which there was no pretence of legal authority. These [illegible], both retrospective in [illegible] leading provisions, [illegible] opinion. The Legislature, to perfect the system for procuring the requisite number of volunteers to fill up the quotas of the different counties under the call of the President. Whether these facts ought, or ought not, to control the otherwise natural construction to be given to this section, is the only question now to be determined.

I can discover nothing in the original act, of which this section is amendatory. No provision seems to have been made for reimbursing those who had, or might thereafter, put in substitutes. And as there can be no doubt that many hundreds had been put in, both before the passage of the act of 25th March, and also between that time and the passage of the supplement, and as this fact must have been well known to the Legislature when they passed this supplement, if they intended to make provision for such cases they would undoubtedly have said so, in terms as clear and express as they did in the other sections. This section, therefore, being entirely new and not containing the slightest intimation that the Legislature intended it to have a retrospective operation, I am of opinion that the other portions of the act, which are professedly curative of former defects, are not sufficient to control the well settled rules of construction in regard to it, and therefore I am constrained to decide that the plaintiffs are not entitled to recover.

The equities are certainly very strong. The township was as much benefitted by their act before, as it would have been after the passage of this act. Those substitutes were credited to the township, which reduced the number liable to draft, and it would only be equitable that all those benefitted should share the burden. But as they choose to stand upon their legal rights, they must be permitted to do so.

Plaintiffs' counsel filed exceptions.

Book Notices.

AFTER THE WAR: A Southern Tour. May 1, 1865, to May 1, 1866. By Whitelaw Reid. Cincinnati: Moore, Wilstach & Baldwin.

Immediately after the war closed, Mr. Reid passed around the entire coast line of the Southern States, and, on subsequent trips, crossed by various routes through the interior. A close and dispassionate observer, he took special pains to gather information, not only as to the material condition of the people, but of their feelings in view of the results of the war. This purpose he seems to have executed with great candor and fidelity. His book contains a mass of facts which will help every reader to a better comprehension of the national situation.

Manchester School Teachers.—The following teachers have been elected for the Manchester Public Schools, for the ensuing year: Principal, Mary Jane Davidson; Assistant, Lizzie Fleming; Grammar Schools, M. E. Bailey, Lizzie A. McKee, Mary E. Pace; Intermediate, E. E. Wilson, Annie Schrieben, Mary E. Kelly, Caroline A. Parry; Primary, Sarah E. Batton, Maggie Carothers, Emma G. Boyd, Lyde E. Kennedy; Snyder's Hollow District, Eliza Richardson.

Arrested and Fined.—Simon Barr, merchant tailor, doing business on Pennsylvania Avenue, near the foot of Chatam street, was arrested yesterday, and brought before Alderman Morrow, charged with sweeping dirt into the street, in violation to a city ordinance. He was fined $2 and costs, which he paid and was discharged. Street commissioner Flinn, the indefatigable, was the prosecutor.

Citizen Dead.—Mr. John M. Roberts, a well known citizen of the First ward, and proprietor of a jewelry establishment on Fifth street, died yesterday morning at his residence, on Second street. Mr. R. at one time represented his Ward in the Common branch of the City Councils, and was held in high esteem by his fellow citizens. His funeral will take place to-day.

Seriously Hurt.—A lad named Lobus, residing in Pitt township, fell from a coke wagon in the vicinity of Soho, yesterday morning, and was seriously injured by striking the tongue, and one of the horses attached to the vehicle tramping on him. The wagon was ascending a steep grade, and the lad slipped from his seat.

The Case Reversed.—John O'Halleran was before Alderman Lynch, yesterday, to answer a charge of assault and battery preferred against him by Dennis Carlin. At the hearing it was discovered that Carlin and not O'Halleran was the assailant. The latter was therefore discharged and Carlin made to pay the costs.

Fire in the Sixth Ward.—On Tuesday morning, about three o'clock, a stable on the corner of Clarke and Fulton street, Sixth ward, was fired, as is supposed, by an incendiary, and completely destroyed, together with two horses and a carriage. The property belonged to a colored man named Golding.

Sudden Death.—Mrs. Susan Cowley, wife of Prof. Alex. Cowley, died very suddenly at her mother's residence, North avenue, Allegheny, on Monday evening, of disease of the heart, with which she had been afflicted for some time.

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM EUROPE.

The War on the Continent.

GREAT BATTLE IN BOHEMIA.

Further of the Battle of Custozza.

PRUSSIAN AND HANOVERIAN ALLIANCE.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The steamer City of London, with one day later news, has arrived. Another great battle had been fought.

PARDUBITZ, June 27.—Evening.—Since ten o'clock this morning a continuous fire of artillery has been kept up by the Austrian and Prussian forces between Neersladt and Nochod, in Bohemia. The Prussians were repulsed near Skalitz, where the cavalry took part in the action. At six o'clock this evening the Prussians were beaten, and are in full retreat, leaving their dead and wounded on the field.

Berlin, June 27.—Evening.—The engagement which took place yesterday at Paeloe, to the east of Turnau, was of a very spirited character, and lasted until midnight. The troops engaged were the Prussian Division under General Stonhorn, and the Prussian Brigade under General Potschamphe. The Prussians lost a colonel, lieutenant and captain.

The Prussian Chambers will probably be convoked for the 18th of July.

ANCONA, June 27.—Twelve men-of-war, comprising the fleet, appeared in sight of this port this morning, but are now leaving. The Italian squadron are preparing to follow and attack them.

BERLIN, June 27.—Noon.—Last night the army of the Elbe had a successful engagement near Turnau, taking seven Austrian officers and five hundred men prisoners.

BERLIN, June 27.—The Austrians have returned to the first station upon the Stelvio, and the Italians have taken up a position near the Port du Diable.

PRAGUE, June 26.—The Prussians destroyed the railway bridge between Wordan and Grassmitz. At Altenberg the people released the prisoners.

The King of Saxony left Prague to-day.

The First Army Corps Reserve, on the heights to the left of Volleggio, held in check an overwhelming number of Austrians, before which Gen. Crane had been forced to retire. Bixon's division, and the cavalry of the line, protected the retreat of the army, which was effected in good order.

The Italian cavalry has had several engagements with the Austrians, who suffered severe losses, and the Third army corps took about one thousand prisoners. The Italian losses are great, but those of the enemy are believed to be still more considerable. The Italian cavalry did not abandon their positions, nor were they overcome until after the enemy had received reinforcements. Towards nightfall both the Italians and Austrians retired from their respective positions.

BERLIN, June 28.—Prussia has again offered the King of Hanover an alliance, with a guarantee for his possession of the throne, on condition of federal reform, and on condition of his capitulating with honors of war. It is hoped here that the capitulation will take place to-day.

PESTH, June 27.—A second conscription has been ordered in Croatia. The Croatian coast districts on the Adriatic have been declared to be in a state of siege.

LIVERPOOL, June 28.—The cotton market is quiet in tone, and middling uplands quoted at barely 13½d. Breadstuffs and provisions are quiet.

LONDON, June 28.—Consols [illegible]. U. S. 5-20s [illegible]. Erie shares [illegible]. Illinois Central shares [illegible]. Bond rate of discount unchanged.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Additional foreign news dated Vienna, June 27th, says: Benedek's passive attitude is accounted for by his desire to have the Federal troops form a junction with his army, and also to allow the Prussians to advance into Bohemia, so that he may cut off their retreat.

There is no dissention among the Hungarian liberals, the Deak party being opposed to insurrection, unless the Austrians suffer a defeat, and the other party favoring immediate insurrection.

FLORENCE, June 27.—The King of Italy yesterday requested the assistance of Austria, offering in exchange the Island of Sardinia, in addition to important concessions upon the Roman question. The Italian army is concentrated at Cremona and Placenza.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Illness of President Johnson—Another Veto Message Expected.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The morning papers contain the following special dispatches from Washington:

The President was seized last night with severe indisposition, the result of the unprecedented hot weather. He has been closely confined all day, seeing no one but Gen. Grant, who called to pay his respects previous to leaving town.

The President will probably to-morrow send to Congress a message accompanying a veto of the new Freedmen's Bureau Bill, recently passed by both branches of Congress. The message has occupied the closest attention of the President for the last few days in its preparation, and will doubtless be a full and exhaustive argument of the points at issue between Congress and the Executive on the policy to be pursued toward the freed people at the South. It is not now considered likely that the bill can be made a law without the approval of the President.

From Chili—Supposed Massacre of Americans.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The Herald's Santiago, Chili, correspondence of date June 9th, says: There is no apprehension at Valparaiso of the return of the Spaniards. The whereabouts of the Allied gunboats Huescar and Independencia was as much a mystery as that of the Spaniards. The Allied fleet was awaiting their arrival at Chiloe.

An American party of fifteen men, women and children were supposed to have been murdered between Mendoza and Rosina, in the Argentine Republic, by the Indians. It was thought that the Indians probably made prisoners of the women and children, and General Kilpatrick, the American Minister at Chili, has [illegible] preliminary measures for [illegible] and release the prisoners [illegible].

The Cuban Revolt—The Chilian Iron Clads Destroying Spanish Vessels.

NEW YORK, [illegible] letter reiterates the reports about a revolt in Cuba, telegraphed yesterday.

A Panama letter announces that the United States steamer Nipsic, from Montevideo, reports that she saw, on May 4th, about sixty miles east of Maldonado, the iron-clad Peruvian frigates Huescar and Independencia. They remained about that point some days, and subsequently captured and destroyed several Spanish vessels. They also embarked at Maldonado some forty persons enlisted at Montevideo, where the Spanish Consul protested against a breach of neutrality.

Tennessee Legislature.

NEW YORK, June [illegible].—A Washington special to the Tribune says: The Tennessee State Senate has ratified the Constitutional Amendment, and they lack but four of a quorum in the House, with a large majority of those present in favor of it. Steps are being taken to secure the presence of the stay-aways, and seven of them are certain of being captured by the sergeant-at-arms, who has orders to bring them in dead or alive.

Deaths from Sun Stroke.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The total number of cases of sun stroke during the recent heated term, was sixty-one in New York and thirteen in Brooklyn.

NOTICE TO THE Tax Payers
OF THE Borough of Lawrenceville.
Whereas, by a Supplement of the Act of Assembly approved the 4th day of March, A. D., 1864, relating to the payment of the Borough Tax to the Treasurer within the limits of said Borough, the undersigned respectfully notifies the said tax payers that he is now in possession of the Duplicate for the payment of said tax, and ready to receive the same.
On all taxes paid on or before the first day of August, 1866, an allowance of five per cent. will be made.
On all taxes paid subsequent to the first day of August and prior to the first day of September, must be paid in full.
On all taxes paid subsequent to the first day of September, he shall add five per centum.
And on the first day of October in each year, the Treasurer shall make out a list of delinquent tax payers, with the amount due from each, with ten per centum additional added; provided that no additional amount shall be less than ten cents, and place the same in the hands of the High Constable, whose duty it shall be to receive the same under a penalty of fifty dollars; and the said Treasurer is hereby authorized to issue to said constable his warrant to collect said tax, granting him all the powers and immunities now by law vested in collectors of county rates and levies. Provided that no further additional notice to tax payers shall be required than the advertisement in one or more papers and by handbills. WM. JANCEY, Borough Treasurer,
Corner of Butler and Dravo streets.

The said Treasurer respectfully informs the tax-payers of said borough that he is Collector and Treasurer for the Lawrenceville School District, and is also prepared to receive their taxes, and invites them to call at his office in the Borough of Lawrenceville, at the corner of Butler and Dravo sts.

SAVE THYSELF.
A CURE FOR INTEMPERANCE.
Dr. S. Cutter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters.
The greatest Nervine ever discovered. The addition, within the last ten years, of Dr. Cutter's Nervine Discovery to the English Bitters, makes it a perfect antidote to intemperance. Previous to his discovery of the Nervine, this medicine was before the English public, celebrated as a Tonic and Alterative, in diseases of the Stomach and of the Bowels, and diseases arising from impurities of the blood. As a nervine it is always the choice of the Stomach, in all persons addicted to the use of stimulants and narcotics, such as alcohol and malt liquors, opium, morphia, arsenic, tobacco, &c., as it removes the morbid appetite, or craving of the stomach for stimulants. In Headache, Neuralgia, and all nervous diseases, it has no equal as a Nervine.
Ten years use of the Improved English Bitters in St. Bartholomew's Hospital, St. Mary's Hospital, Newgate and other prisons, has established its reputation, as a cure for intemperance, and gained for it the approval of the attending surgeons in all the hospitals and prisons throughout Great Britain, and is prescribed now by many physicians in private practice, for persons addicted to the use of stimulants and sedatives. In Paralysis, St. Vitus' Dance, Epileptic Fits, Nervous Twitchings, and all Nervous diseases, it has no equal. Wholesale and Retail Agent.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

TUESDAY, July 10, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold opened at 148¾, reacted slightly and closed weak and lower. 1881's, 109¾; 5-20's, 105¾@106¾; 10-40's (large) 98½; 10-40's, (small) 97½; 7-30's, (large) 103¾; 7-30's (small) 103¾. Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, 84¼; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 97½; Erie, 71¾; Western & Union Telegraph, 54; Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, 31½ to 32.

Large amounts of money are ready for investment, but government bonds, because they have suddenly advanced, are looked upon as being a little too much above par to pay more than six per cent interest, though many did not deem 5-20s too high when quoted at 111@113, as was the case in November, 1863. Money is just as abundant now as it was then; currency it may said was then more depreciated, but business generally was brisk, and now it is dull, very dull, which is more than an offset against any depreciation.

So long as the foreign demand for old Five-Twenties lasts, and the government is continually disbursing money for temporary loans, we may look for further advanced premiums on government securities and anything else that can command a ready sale during a pressure for money. Those who have the money ready to invest might as well pay 105½ for Five Twenties now as waiting until quoted at 109; think the matter over again, and finally pay 111. Ten Forties are creeping up, and are within 1½ per cent of par. 1881's are higher than ever, i. e., the difference between a long absolute investment at a Five Twenty option was never greater. Seven Thirties are dull; they are offered freely, but few wish to buy now at 103¾, and yet they must go higher. As the premium on gold or coupons declines, the net interest will be below that of the Seven Thirties, and as Seven Thirties have the option with the holder to convert them into Five Twenties they are just worth as much, less the accrued interest on Five Twenties.

Gold has been very weak to-day, the demand being light for export, and the tax bill is not likely to pass; and if passed, may not take effect at once; purchases are made sparingly. Another cause is the stoppage of pleasure seeking excursions to foreign countries, and while it seems to be a small item, yet, it has a telling effect on a weak market, during a dull season. Furthermore, operators for a rise have left the gold room, as the margins were too small, and having made enough to enable them to spend the summer elsewhere, have sold out.

There is but comparatively little doing in our local stock market. Bank shares are quiet but firm, the extreme views of holders generally having a tendency to retard operations. Insurance stocks continue dull with but slight prospects at present of any immediate improvement. Oil shares continue very much neglected; in fact, Columbia seems to be the only stock for which there are buyers, and even for it the demand is not very brisk, notwithstanding it is expected a very snug dividend will be announced to-morrow. We were informed by a party to-day, that he was offered thirty thousand shares of a certain oil stock for three hundred dollars; or, one cent per share.

—A Washington dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette, under date of July 8th, says:

"The House Committee on Banking and Currency will, on Tuesday, begin their investigation into the recent sale and purchase of bonds and gold by the government. It is believed that the inquiry will take a wider range than that called for by Mr. Wilson's resolution, and before the matter is settled will probably include a sharp examination into the entire management of the Treasury Department for the past eighteen months. A prominent officer in that Department asserts without reserve that an investigation of the kind would develop the fact that, instead of the debt being decreased $100,000,000 during the last fiscal year, it has really been increased more than that amount."

—The New York Times, of Monday, says:

The import entries, for the past week, including the dry goods return in our last paper, amount to $3,2[illegible], against the total entries of $2,754,792 same week last year. The export clearances of domestic produce amount to $2,390,[illegible], against $1,757,283 same week last year. The export of specie amounts to $1,2[illegible], against $28,8[illegible] same week last year. The customs for the week are $2,472,[illegible]. The receipts of cotton, coastwise and by railroad, are [illegible] bales. The number of emigrant passengers arrived during the week, 7,[illegible].

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The gold market closed up steadily at 148¾@148⅞. The government securities were less active. The following were the closing prices: Coupons of 1881, 109¾@109⅞; 5-20 coupons of 1864, 105@105½; 10-40 coupons, 98¾@98⅞; July 7-30s, 103¾@103⅞.

At the second regular board there was considerable excitement on Erie, and the stock rose from 72½ to 73¾, with sales of about 5,000 shares, nearly all bought by one broker. There is a difference of 3@3½ per cent. between cash and sellers thirty days. The balance of the market was generally firm, but the business was not large.

At the last board the market was lower on Erie. The balance of the market was firm. Sales of Quicksilver at 51½; Western Union Telegraph, 54; Erie Railroad, 72¾; New York Central, 99¼; Hudson River, B. 30, 115; Reading, extra dividend, 109¾; New York, 122½; Marietta and Cincinnati, 1st preferred, 45½; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 84¾; Cleveland and Toledo, 110½; Chicago and Rock Island, 92¾; Chicago and Northwestern, S. 15, 32¼; do, 32½; Chicago and Northwestern preferred, B. 10, 62½; do, 62¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, extra dividend, 99¾. There was a little more demand for money in some quarters, but the market may be quoted easy at five per cent. on call. There is a movement of currency to the west.

The discount market is quiet. The market for exchange is firm and rather more active. Bankers' bills are quoted at 109¾@109⅞, and short sight at 110¼@110½.

The Post's money article says: The Loan market is rather more active, at 5 per cent.; expectations 4@5. Stock market unsettled. Governments are strong, in consequence of the foreign demand just received. A very heavy business in 5-20s has been done, one purchase at the Board amounting to one million and seventy-five thousand dollars. Railroad shares are irregular, and there is more disposition to sell. After the Board, New York Central sold at 99⅜; Erie, 72; Michigan Southern, 79¾; Illinois Central, 121¾; Northwestern, 31½; do. preferred, 61¾; Toledo, 111; Fort Wayne, 97⅝. Foreign Exchange firm.

New York Produce Market.

NEW YORK, July 10.—Cotton firm, at 36@38c for middling. Flour dull, and 10@15c lower; sales at $7,65@8,55 for extra State, $8,70@10,60 for common to good shipping brands extra round hoop Ohio, and $10,00@13,75 for trade brands, closing dull. Whisky rather more active; sales of State at $2,20, and 500 bbls. western, in bond, at $2,31. Wheat dull, heavy and 2c lower; $2 for new No. 2 Milwaukee, $2,28@2,30 for No. 1 do. and $3 for small parcels new crop Amber Jersey. Rye is quiet at $1,04 for western. Barley and Barley Malt dull. Corn 1@2c. lower, with rather more doing; sales at 84@86 for unsound new mixed western, 87@87½ for sound do., chiefly at 89, and 97 for handsome western yellow. Oats dull at 51@55 for new western, including one parcel very good Chicago at 50 and Iowa at 70. Coffee is steady. Sugar dull; Cuba 10½@11. Petroleum dull at 22@23 for crude, and 36@40 for refined in bond. Pork dull and lower, at $31,75@32,12½ for new mess, closing at $31,87½ cash; $21,50 for old do, and $28,25@28,75 for prime. Beef steady. Beef Hams dull. Cut Meats unchanged, at 13@15½ for Shoulders and 17@20 for Hams. Bacon dull; short ribbed 17½@17¾. Lard heavy and lower at 18@21. Butter quiet at 20@35 for Ohio and 25@40 for State. Cheese dull at 14@21.

Oswego Market.

OSWEGO, July 10.—Flour dull and drooping; sales 1,000 bbls at $11,25 for No 1 Spring, $12,75@13,25 for red winter, and $13,50@13,75 for double extra. Wheat quiet and nominally 5c lower; No 1 Milwaukee club at the close was offered at $2,25, and No 1 Chicago spring at $2,05, without sales. Corn closes quiet and nominally lower; No 1 Illinois cannot be quoted over 77@78c. Oats off red—to arrive—at 55c for prime Wisconsin, which is above buyers' views. Peas unchanged; sales 3,000 bush at $1,20. Canal Freights dull, wheat 12½c and corn 11c to New York. Lumber advanced to $4,75 to Hudson; and boats very scarce.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, July 10, 1866.

The produce markets continue quiet and rather dull, and with a demand restricted almost entirely to supplying the immediate wants of the retail trade, prices have undergone no especial change.

GRAIN—Wheat continues dull but unchanged; sale of 1 car Milwaukee Club at $2,35. Oats dull but unchanged; Chicago Oats may be quoted at 46 to 48, in elevator, and prime white ditto at 54@55. Small sales from store at 57 to 60. Corn is dull with small sales from store at 80 to 85. Barley is dull and Rye also, is inactive and lower, $1 being the best offer for prime. Buckwheat is dull with small sales at $1,75@$2.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is firm but unchanged; we now quote at 17 to 17½ for Shoulders; 19½@20 for Ribbed Sides; and 25 to 26 for Sugar Cured Hams. Lard is dull but firm 22@23 for steamed and kettle rendered. Mess Pork is still quoted at $33½ to $34.

FLOUR—Is firm with a continued fair local demand and prices are well maintained. We continue to quote at $10,50 to $11,50 for fair to choice Spring Wheat Family; $12,50 to $13 for Winter Wheat; and $14 to $16 for fancy brands. Rye Flour is dull at $6,50 to $6,75.

POTATOES—There is a fair demand for old crop Potatoes, with sales at $3,50 to $4 per bbl. New Potatoes have still further declined, under the influence of improved receipts, and we now quote at $5 to $5,50 per bbl.

EGGS—Continues dull, with a supply considerably in excess of the demand; sales reported at 17@18.

BUTTER—There is a slight speculative demand for packed Butter, with sales at 20 to 22, as to quality.

CHEESE—Is quiet and unchanged. Sales of Western Reserve at 15@16.

MILL FEED—Sale of 3 cars light Middlings at $1,50, and 5 tons Shorts at 95c.

DRIED FRUIT—Peaches are selling at 18 to 20c for quarters, and 24 to 25 for prime halves. Apples selling at 15 to 16.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is in demand at $3, and there is little or none offering. No demand for Clover or Timothy.

SALT—Is quoted firm at $2,50 per bbl, by the car load, and $2,75 for small lots from store.

FISH—Sales of Lake Herring at $5,25@5,50 per half bbl., and White Fish at $9,25@9,50.

OIL—No. 1 Lard is quoted at $1,80@1,85.

PIG LEAD—Sales at 12c.

HOMINY—Sales at 3½@4—dull.

SORGHUM—Is dull at 50 to 55.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, July 10, 1866.

CRUDE—There was apparently a little more inquiry for Crude to-day, but while the transactions were comparatively large, there is no improvement in prices. We can report sales of 250 bbls at 11¾, bbls returned; 250 do do at [illegible]; 1000, in bulk, on the spot, at 12½; 3000, in bulk, to arrive on the first water, at 12½; 3000 to be delivered in August and September, seller's option, at 12¾, and 266 bbls at 17, net, packages included. As will be seen from the above, the transactions, in the aggregate, were unusually large, reaching seven thousand six hundred and six barrels, but it should also be noted that prices are barely sustained—in some cases, concessions having been made by the seller. The latest advices we have from Oil City report Crude dull at $3,75@3,80 per barrel.

REFINED—The demand for bonded oil was very much restricted to-day, but very few of our brokers having orders to buy, and we are cognizant of several offers having been made to sell for Philadelphia delivery at yesterday's quotations without success. For example, oil for immediate delivery was offered at 38, delivered in Philadelphia, while 37 to 37½ were the best offers that could be obtained, and it is said that contracts for this month changed hands there at 37½. We have but a single sale to report, 500 bbls for September, at 41, buyer's option. October was offered at 43—42 bid; and November at 44—43 bid. December is nominal at 45. So far as we could learn there were no transactions for Pittsburgh delivery, in the absence of which we omit quotations. Free Oil is dull and prices are nominal at 50 to 52.

ARRIVALS—The hopes entertained of a rise in the Allegheny River do not seem likely to be realized, as telegrams from Oil City report 15 inches and falling. The following arrivals of oil were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro	204	W. P. Logan	200
J. Gallagher	280	Mason & Pease	21
Jas. Wilkins	47	Buffum & Kehew	21
Total			792

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
TUESDAY, July 10, 1866.

CATTLE—The supply of cattle was again light this week, not exceeding six hundred head, but the market, nevertheless, was a hard one, and some six car loads were left over unsold. The demand was very much restricted, as the butchers bought very sparingly, and there was not a single sale for shipment. As compared with last week, prices are, if anything, a shade lower, although there is but very little difference; good retailing cattle sold at from 8 to 8½—some few extra at 8¾@9—medium grades brought from 7 to 7½, and inferior 5½ to 6½. Had there been an average supply of cattle on sale, the market would have been much worse than it was, as in that event the supply would have been much larger than the demand, and concessions would have had to be made in order to effect sales.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—The supply of sheep was very light this week, not exceeding eight hundred head, but the demand also was light, and prices were barely maintained. Good fat mutton sheep may be quoted at 5 to 6, while common sold at 4 to 4½—there were a few extra sheep sold at 6 to 6½, but these cannot be taken as a fair criterion of the market. Stock sheep are selling at about $3 per head. Lambs sold at from $2 to $4 per head, according to size and condition.

HOGS—There is nothing doing in this class of stock, worthy of notice, and prices remain about as last week, 9½ to 10½, gross, for fair to good averages.

REPORTED SALES OF CATTLE.

Marks & Traurman retailed 71 head at 6¾ to 8½. Rothchilds & Eckert 37 head at 7@8½. Greenwald & Kahn 38 head at 7½@8½. Myers & Neely 53 head at 7@8¾. Hazlewood & Isaac 18 head at 7 to 7½—two car loads left over. Jas. Morgan 18 head at 6½@8. Jas. McAllister 26 head at 6½@8½. Glass & Lafferty 36 head at 6 to 8½. Krause & Haas 18 head. Merrick & Dodd 32 head.

Nicholas Car sold 18 head of common Ohio cattle for E. M. Funk at 7 to 7½, and 18 head for Harbison at 6½@8.

O. P. Clark wholesaled to Rambow 23 head of common Ohio cattle, averaging about 900 lbs, at 7½.

Geo. Emerick & Co. wholesaled to Bowman & Co. 36 head of good cattle, averaging 1314 lbs, at 7¾.

Martin & Carmichael wholesaled to Rothchilds & Co. 16 head of good cattle, averaging 1113 lbs, at 8¼.

Jas. McAllister to Verner & Co. 15 head of common cattle, averaging 1100, at 7.

Chicago vs. St. Louis Wheat Speculators

The Missouri Republican of Friday says:

Chicago speculators are paying $2,10 for spring wheat at points above La Crosse, and shipping it to Chicago over the railroads to injure St. Louis! We heartily congratulate the Minnesota people at being able to get such thumping prices, and hope the Chicago speculators will keep on injuring St. Louis in this fashion until the entire crop of the Northwest shall have been bought up at that rate and paid for, as we are free to confess our inability to take any more of the present crop at prices heretofore paid. Extra Northern club wheat is difficult to sell at $2 per bushel in St. Louis to-day; No. 1 spring is worth $1,80 at the outside, and will go lower very soon. We have an immense and excellent crop of fall wheat throughout our own State and through Southern Illinois, which will furnish all our millers can do for a year to come; and it is expected that this crop will be purchased on an average under $2 per bushel. It is from this beautiful white wheat, unexcelled out of this latitude, that the famous "four ace" and "XXX Brilliant" brands of flour have been and are being made, and however good and rich the "Club" and "No. 1 Spring" of our Northern countries may be, no one will imagine them to equal the famous "white wheat" of southern Illinois and central Missouri. Therefore, if Chicago wants the Winona and St. Croix Valley spring at the same price we expect to pay for our fall white, by all means let her be indulged, and we will pray fervently that she may continue long in that state of mind and that her funds may hold out until every bushel of coveted grain shall be snugly stored in her immense elevators. Persevere, therefore, well assured that a great good will befall the lucky Minnesota wheat growers, while St. Louis will not feel at all hurt.

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, July 10.—The current prices for the week at all the markets are as follows:

BEEF CATTLE—First quality, per head, $17,00@18,50; fair to good, $15@17; common, $14@15; inferior, $12@14.

COWS AND CALVES—Extra, per head, $85@95; first quality, $75; ordinary, $65@75; common, $50@60; inferior, $30@45.

VEAL CALVES—First quality, per pound, 12@13c; ordinary, 10½@11½c; common, 10@11½c; inferior, 9@10c.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Extra, per head, $7@8; prime quality, $6,50@7; ordinary, $5,50@6,50; common, $5@5,50; inferior, $3,50@4,50.

The market for beef cattle remained without decided change; the supply was ample for all requirements, and though sales were slow, and in many instances at a trifling decline, the whole range of prices was about the same. The best cattle sold readily at 17@17½, but other kinds dragged, and some promised to be left out. Veals in moderate demand, and prices favored purchasers. Sheep and Lambs fairly active and full prices were readily obtained for all but poor.

Chicago Lumber Market.

CHICAGO, July 9.—The receipts are large and the market rules dull, with the following sales afloat:

117 m sawed shingles, at $—,20 m shaved shingles at $5; 275 m shaved shingles at $5,25. 200 m feet m mixed lumber at $17,50. 30 m feet wide clear at $50; 58 m feet, ⅝ strips, balance boards at $19. 50 m feet, ⅜ strips, balance boards at $18. 85 m feet, ⅛ strips, balance mixed, at $17; 25 m lath at $4. 72 m feet, ⅛ strips, balance mixed at $17. 150 m feet, deckload timber at $24, balance mixed at $18. 90 m feet mixed at $18. 115 m feet, 2-3 strips, balance mixed at $19,50. 100 m feet mixed at $17. 80 m feet, ⅛ strips, balance scantling and joist, at $15; 40 m lath at $4. 90 m feet, 2-3 superior strips, balance mixed at $19.

St. Louis Market.

ST. LOUIS, July 10.—Cotton dull at 32c. Flour very dull and 10@20c lower; $6,75@8 for spring extra; $9,15@12,25 for double extra. Wheat heavy at $2,15@2,40 for new. Corn easier at 65@73c. Oats firm at 52@47c. Provisions unchanged. Whisky steady at $2,20.

Cincinnati Market.

CINCINNATI, July 10.—Flour and Wheat dull. Whisky, $2,27 in bond. Mess Pork in fair demand, at $32,50@32,75; sales of 360,000 lbs Shoulders and Sides at 15 to 17½c. Gold, 148½.

Albany Market.

ALBANY, July 10.—Flour and Wheat quiet. Rye, $1,25. Oats; sales 20,000 bus. at 56@66c for Milwaukee. Corn dull; sales 15,000 bus. mixed western at 88@88½c.

Chicago Market.

CHICAGO, July 10.—Flour dull. Wheat dull, at $1,87@1,87½ for No. 1, and $1,22@1,23 for No. 2. Corn active, at 57@58c for No. 1, and 56@57½c for No. 2. Oats steady, at 32@32½ for No. 1 and 30¼@30½c for No. 2. Highwines $2,22, free. Provisions dull. Freights declined 3c. Receipts—6,500 barrels of flour, 17,000 bush. wheat; 220,000 bush. corn, 57,000 bush. oats. Shipments—8,000 barrels of flour, 30,000 bush. wheat, 320,000 bush. corn, and 13,000 bush oats.

Buffalo Market.

RIVER NEWS.

The river rose several inches during Monday night and yesterday forenoon, and was still rising slowly last evening with about three feet four or five inches in the channel by the Monongahela pier marks. The rise thus far has been in the Monongahela. Telegrams from Oil City yesterday reported the Allegheny falling with but fifteen inches in the channel. The weather continues cloudy and unsettled with every appearance of more rain.

It will be remembered that some weeks since a slight collision occurred on the Monongahela river between the steamers Fayette and Chieftan. After a thorough investigation of the matter, Inspectors Walker and Atkinson have exonerated the Chieftan from all blame, and suspended the license of Samuel Hughes, pilot of the Fayette, for six months.

The neat and reliable Nora, in command of Capt. H. H. Devinney, failed to get off for Cincinnati as expected last evening, but she will leave to-day without fail. The Nora is one of the best low water boats on the river, and passengers and shippers should bear in mind that she will be able to go through without detention.

The Fayette on her recent down trip brought to this port two hundred bales of wool, which is said to be the largest amount of wool that that ever come down the Monongahela on a single steamboat.

Mr. Jas Russell, a well-known steamboat clerk, and who officiated in that capacity on the ill-fated Financier from the time she came out until she was burned, has taken charge of the office of the Columbia. Mr. Russell is a very attentive and obliging officer. The Columbia, Capt. Porter, says, and he ought to know, will leave for St. Louis and all intermediate points this evening or to-morrow morning.

There were no arrivals or departures yesterday aside from the regular packets.

The Elector, Capt. Phillips, and the Gallatin, Capt. Carlise, are the regular packets for Brownsville, leaving this evening at 5 o'clock.

The Atlantic & Mississippi Steamship Company have determined to discontinue the present arrangement of their steamers. Instead of six steamers from St. Louis making fourteen day trips, eight steamers will be placed in the line, each making a trip in sixteen days.

The Starlight, in coming down the Mississippi to St. Louis, last week, came in contact with the Clinton bridge, and sunk one of her barges loaded with grain, also doing some damage to herself. She goes on the docks at St. Louis.

The Memphis and St. Louis packets put [illegible] at Memphis according to custom-house measurement as follows: City of Cairo, $47,50; Marble City, $[illegible]; [illegible], $[illegible]; City of Alton, $[illegible], and Rose Hite, $41,50, making an average payment of $[illegible] per week, or $[illegible] per year.

THE NEW

Spring and Summer Medicine.

FLUID EXTRACT

SARSAPARILLA,

COMBINED WITH

Iodide of Lime.

PREPARED FOR

G. W. FETTES, BOSTON,

BY

James R. Nichols & Co.,

MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF THE

ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK

WITH

Protoxide of Iron,

Which has become so favorably known as a

Tonic and Restorative,

by Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and fully in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Pale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to take this syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it, as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of using, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

CHOLERA DISARMED!!! The Chief Cause of Pestilence Destroyed! DR. E. COURTARET'S DISINFECTING FLUIDS, secured by Letters Patent in the United States and France. Prepared solely by the New York Disinfecting Company, at their Laboratory, Nos. 28, 30 and 32 Henry Street, N. Y. Office, 32 Cedar Street. This Company organized on a permanent basis, with Dr. Courtaret, the celebrated French Chemist, in charge of its Laboratory, is prepared to furnish its DISINFECTING FLUIDS for sick rooms, nurseries, urinals, water closets, privies, cesspools, sewers, gutters, ships, railroads, hospitals, prisons, and public institutions of all kinds, slaughter-houses, offal and fat-boiling establishments; all kinds of manures (immensely increasing the value of the latter to every farmer), and wherever poisonous and offensive gasses exist. These agents are deodorizers, antiseptics, antiputrescents, and disinfectants in the scientific meaning of the words. They remove noxious gasses and odors by chemical principles—leaving in their places healthful air; they are DESTROYERS, and not merely absorbents of poisonous gases—not injurious to utensils in which they are used. The attention of medical and scientific men is directed to these disinfectants. Attached are testimonials in favor of this great discovery, which, with hundreds of others can be seen at the Company's office.

DELAVAN HOUSE, ALBANY, March 30, 1866. To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.: Dear Sir: It is all it is represented to be. We have made many trials of disinfectants, but now consider that we have found an article which surpasses all others as a remedy against all bad odors. T. ROESSEL & CO.

NEW YORK, April 9, 1866. To the President of the New York Disinfecting Co.: Dear Sir: We pronounce it, without exception, to be the best we have ever known. Its effect upon every matter is complete and instantaneous. C. A. STETSON, Astor House.

N. B.—These Disinfectants are used by the scavengers, under the direction of the Sanitary Police of the Metropolitan Health Department, N. Y. POWELL & THOMPSON, 4 CEDAR ST., N. Y., General and sole Agents for the United States and the Canadas, to whom all orders should be addressed. For sale by McCLARAN & McKENNAN, Druggists, Pittsburgh, Pa.
